Knowing Governance does nothing less than open up a whole new field of inquiry, posing urgent new questions for the disciplines of politics." - Andrew Barry, University College London, UK - Andrew Barry, University College London, UK

Governance or Management: Knowing the difference
Governance or Management: Knowing the difference
Are you a member of staff making decisions for your governing body? Or As a trustee are you taking on operational matters? Or Is one member of staff controlling all decisions? Or Are you part of the management committee for a small organisation with no staff and are doing a bit of everything? All of the above situations are reasonably common.
