Maisie Dobbs herself comes from a lower class, but through her intelligence, hard work, and good fortune migrates up the class ladder to become friends with enlightened nobility and the moneyed, but definitely not considered equal. Although I have enjoyed several authors' works in this area, at least to my taste, I find Ms. Winspear's work a cut above that of most of her worthy peers in complexity and attention holding ability. I am looking forward to reading more of her creations.
